LA SALLE UNIVERSITY

La Salle University is a liberal arts institution which combines the best of all educational worlds. With 3300 men and women attending classes, the university offers a pleasant environment within close proximity to Philadelphia's cultural, social, and historic centers.

Founded by the Brothers of Christian Schools, La Salle is named for St. John Baptist de la Salle, founder of the Christian Brothers. The institution, which began as a one-building academy in center city Philadelphia, is on an 85-acre, 36-building campus in Philadelphia's Germantown section.

The La Salle day and evening faculty numbers 400 full and part-time, with 45 different programs of study offered in which to major. With a student-faculty ratio of 15-1 and an average class size of 21, students can be assured of as much personal guidance as needed from faculty members. This commitment to the individual has always been a major tenet of the Christian Brothers' goals for La Salle.

La Salle's curriculum requires the completion of 120 credits, but allows wide flexibility in choosing courses. A limited number of requirements in English composition, literature, philosophy and religion provide greater opportunity for depth outside of the student's major field. The number of courses required by a department of its major never exceeds 17, leaving 8-10 courses as free electives that may be used to build a strong minor or diversify one's background.

Various independent study programs provide the students with greater options. A thriving nationally-recognized Honors Program is available for gifted students. "La Salle in Europe" offers students the opportunity to spend their sophomore or junior year at the University of Fribourg, in Switzerland, while receiving full academic credit at La Salle. Programs are also available for a summer or a year of study in Spain.

Among the major buildings on campus are the Connelly Library; the Roland Holyroyd Science Center with facilities for study and research in Biology, Geology, Physics, and Psychology; the Olney Hall classroom building; and the College Union which houses offices for most student activities and clubs and is the main meeting place on campus.

The athletic department is housed in Hayman Hall. The facility includes the 1700-seat Joseph Kirk Natatorium, three regulation-sized basketball courts, a 12 laps/mile suspended running track, weight training and exercise areas, a sauna, squash courts and a medical training area.

La Salle students come from 200 public and private schools in 30 states and 20 countries. The dormitories house more than 1400 students in 11 residence halls and two apartment complexes. More than 70% of the students body goes on to graduate study, with more than 1000 degrees conferred annually on day and evening division seniors.

La Salle students have been awarded 58 Fulbright grants since 1970, a total exceeded by only two other institutions in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. According to a recent survey, La Salle ranked in the top 6% nationally among private undergraduate institutions originating PH.D's (58th of 943 colleges and universities.)

BRO. F. PATRICK ELLIS, F.S.C., Ph.D

PRESIDENT

Brother F. Patrick Ellis, F.S.C., became La Salle University's 26th president on January 1, 1977. After having served as director of development and vice president of the corporation of the university since June, 1969, he succeeded Brother Daniel Burke, F.S.C., Ph.D.

Born in Baltimore in 1928, Brother Ellis, a member of the Brother of the Christian Schools since 1946, joined the La Salle staff in 1960 as an assistant professor of English. He has been at the university since then except for a term as principal of La Salle High School, in Miami, Florida from 1962 to 1964.

Brother Ellis returned to La Salle in 1964 and served as director of the university's Honors Program until 1969 when he was named director of development and vice president of the Corporation. He was awarded a Lindback Foundation Award for distinguished teaching in 1965 and currently holds the rank of Professor of English.

Brother Ellis served at Philadelphia's West Catholic High School for boys from 1951 to 1958 and again from 1959 to 1960 in various capacities including chairman of the English Department and guidance director.

The author of numerous articles in educational publications, Brother Ellis also conducted a "How to Read Great Books" series for the "University of the Air" on Philadelphia's WFIL-TV in 1961 and 1965. He is a member of Phi Beta Kappa and was president of the Phi Beta Kappa Association of Philadelphia for two terms.

Brother Ellis, a 1946 graduate of Baltimore's Calvert Hall College High School, received an A.B. degree in English from the Catholic University of America, Washington, D.C., in 1951. He earned a master's degree and doctorate in English from the University of Pennsylvania.

A member of the Board of Trustees of Manhattan College, N.Y.; St. Mary's

Brother Patrick Ellis, F.S.C., Ph.D

College of California, St. Mary's College, Winona, Minnesota, and St. John's College High School, Washington, D.C., Brother Ellis is the son of Mrs. Harry J. Ellis, who lives in Baltimore.

Brother Ellis is active in many national and local educational and civic organizations. He is past chairman of the Board of Directors of the 220-member Association of Catholic Colleges and Universities and chairman of Philadelphia's Campus Boulevard Corporation, a cooperative organization of institutions located adjacent to La Salle University of Olney Avenue.

He was the chairman for 1986-87 of the Pennsylvania Association of Colleges and Universities and is on the boards of Greater Philadelphia First Corporation, Philadelphia Urban Affairs Partnership, Independence Hall Association, the Police Athletic League, Fellowship Commission, Professionalism Committee of the Pennsylvania Bar Association, Catholic Charities of Philadelphia, Delaware Valley Citizens' Crime Commission, and Philadelphia Police Commissioner's Civilian Council.

Brother Ellis recently completed terms on the boards of American Council on Education, the Afro-American Historical Museum, Community Leadership Seminar, Salvation Army, Archdiocesan Council of Managers, and World Affairs Council.

ROBERT MULLEN

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

Entering his third year as the Director of Athletics at La Salle University is Robert Mullen. Being named to this post on July 28, 1986 becoming only La Salle University's fourth Director of Athletics.

Mullen is the top administrator of the University's 22-sport intercollegiate program. Under Mullen's direction, La Salle's athletic teams have won two of its five consecutive Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference's all-sports trophies.

During Mullen's first two years, La Salle has shown a rebirth in national basketball prominence finishing as a finalist in the 1987 NIT and a trip to the 1988 NCAA Basketball Tournament. Additionally, La Salle's women's basketball team secured a bid to the 1988 NCAA Women's Basketball Tournament, making the school only one of eight institutions to participate in both Championships.

La Salle's men's teams have broken the single game record for gate receipts three times in Philadelphia's historic Palestra over the past two years. The Explorers also received national television exposure five times last season.

Mullen is currently President of the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference and was Chairman of the Big Five in 1988. A member of the National Association of College Directors of Athletics (NACDA), Mullen has been an active administrator. Mullen was the President of the NAIA Athletic Directors Association and was a Division II College Representative to the Executive Committee of NACDA. At the international level, he has been a voting delegate to the U.S. Olympic Committee-U.S. Sports Council; in 1986, Mullen served as an administrator at the Goodwill Games in Moscow; he has conducted clinics at Sports Camps in Scandinavia; and visited 10 foreign countries with his collegiate basketball teams at Loras and Southern Colorado.

Prior to coming to La Salle, Mullen had been a successful administrator and coach at the University of Southern Colorado and at Loras College.

In 1981, Mullen was named the Director of Athletics at Southern Colorado in Pueblo, CO. While at Southern Colorado, Mullen had several teams qualify for post-season play including the men's basketball program's first-ever appearance at the NAIA National Championships; promoted an NAIA first round football playoff game which set a national attendance record and initiated a varsity wrestling program which ranked second in the NAIA just three years from its inception. He also served as the interim Director of Alumni Affairs.

In 1974, Mullen was selected as the Director of Athletics and Head Coach of basketball and golf at Loras College in Dubuque, IA. Both sports reached the NAIA finals under his leadership. For his coaching efforts, Mullen received NAIA District Coach of the Year honors in both basketball and golf. Mullen established a Division III football program at Loras and helped in the planning and development of both a civic arena and campus intramural center. He also initiated a women's intercollegiate athletic program at a previously all-male school.

Prior to entering the college ranks, he started his coaching career in the Chicago Catholic League in 1962. From 1965-1974, Mullen was Athletic Director and Head Basketball Coach at Galena (IL) High School. His basketball team won seven straight conference championships while posting an overall record of 189-59.

He was also the Head Coach of football (18-6 record), golf (three conference championships) cross country and baseball.

Mullen, 49, is a double graduate of Northern Illinois University. He earned a Bachelor of Science degree in History in 1962 and a Master of Science degree in Guidance and Counseling in 1967.

Mullen and his wife, Marcia, have four children: a daughter, Sherri is married with two daughters and lives in Elgin, IL; a son, Scott is a graduate student at Temple University; a daughter, Kelly is a junior at La Salle; and a son, Rob is a senior at Bishop McDevitt High School.

HEAD COACH JOHN MILLER

46-12, 3rd Year

1986-87, 1987-88

MAAC Coach-of-the-Year

Big 5 Coach-of-the-Year

After completing his second year as head coach for the Explorers, John Miller has compiled an impressive 46-12 overall record and can make a name for himself in the La Salle record books as the winningest coach in La Salle history. Miller needs just 15 wins to pass Kevin Gallagher on the all-time career victory list. Gallagher coached the La Salle women from 1981-84.

The 87-88 season was expected to be a rebuilding year, but what transpired during the season was anything but that. The 87-88 Explorers posted a 25-5 mark and virtually swept the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference with an 11-1 mark to grab the regular season title. A 3-1 mark in the Big 5 was enough to give La Salle a first place tie with Villanova and St. Joseph's -- the second consecutive year the Explorers had claimed both crowns.

Last year's team also made a name for themselves in tournament play as it tallied a first-place finish at the Rhode Island Tournament in Kingston, RI, and captured the title in the La Salle Invitational. It was the first time La Salle had won its own tournament in eight tries. The Explorers later went on to receive national recognition as the AP Poll ranked them several times in the Top 20. A post season at-large bid into the NCAA Tournament was the first in La Salle history.

The Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference and the Philadelphia Big 5 recognized Miller's accomplishments when both named him Coach-of-the-Year for the second consecutive season. La Salle also rewarded Miller for his outstanding achievements by signing him to a contract that would see him through the 1991 season.

A 1969 graduate of St. Charles Seminary, Miller coached extensively at the high school level before taking over the women's program for Bill "Speedy" Morris in 1986. In 1976, he assumed the head coaching position at Archbishop Ryan High School. During his nine-year stint at Ryan, Miller was twice named Catholic League Coach-of-the-Year before taking over at Monsignor Bonner High School. He closed out his high school coaching career at Bonner with 150 wins to his credit.

With just Cheryl Reeve and Suzy Springman graduated, and the addition of three top recruits and transfer, Brenda Mason, Miller feels his 1988-89 squad will continue the winning tradition while possibly receiving a pre-season Top 20 ranking.

ASSISTANT COACHES

Cheryl Reeve

Graduate Assistant

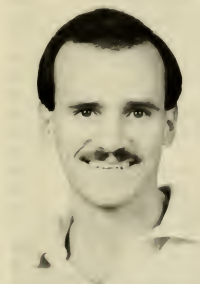

A four-year starter at La Salle, Cheryl Reeve stays with the team in 1988-89 as a graduate assistant. An All-MAAC selection last season, Reeve is among the top 10 in La Salle's record book in nearly every category. A Second Team All-Big 5 pick as a senior, Reeve was also named to the MAAC and Big 5 All-Academic Teams. The all-time leader in games started, Reeve was also an outstanding student at La Salle. The MAAC Scholar/Athlete of the Year in 1987-88, Reeve was honored by the NCAA with a post-graduate grant. Reeve is attending graduate school at La Salle, studying for her MBA degree. She plans a future in college coaching.

Thomas Lochner

Volunteer Assistant

Tom Lochner returns for a second year as a volunteer assistant under Coach John Miller. A chance meeting with Miller at the 1987 Women's NCAA Final Four brought Tom Lochner to La Salle. Lochner coached girls basketball at his alma mater, Bishop Gibbons in Schenectady, NY, from 1980-87, the last four years as head coach of the varsity squad. During his head coaching tenure Bishop Gibbons went 87-13, winning the New York State Championship in the large school division with a 26-2 mark in 1986, and also won three sectional titles. A graduate of Hudson Valley Community College with an Associate's Degree in Marketing, Lochner is pursuing his bachelor's degree in Physical Education/Sports Administration at Temple University.

Frank Nunan

Volunteer Assistant

Frank Nunan returns to La Salle for his third season as an assistant coach. A 1981 graduate of Lycoming where he majored in History/Education, Nunan served as John Miller's assistant at Monsignor Bonner for one year. Prior to that Nunan was an assistant varsity coach at Oakcrest High School in Mays Landing, NJ, for two seasons and a junior varsity coach at Lycoming in 1980 and 1981. He played guard for Lycoming in 1978 and 1979 after a successful high school career at Monsignor Bonner where he was captain of the team and an All-Catholic selection as a senior. Frank is an insurance representative for Aetna Insurance Company in Philadelphia.
